'Independence Day'

Introduction:-

15th August is a historical day for India. It is our independence day, this day after a long time journey and hard struggle, India won freedom from clutches of the Britishers. It was a great achievement for all Indian.

First Independence :-

On 15th August 1947, the whole nation celebrated its first independence day. It was a day of rejoicing and pride. Our first prime minister Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru hoisted the national flag from the ramparts of the Red Fort in Delhi. It was a promise of progress and prosperity.

Rights of Tricolour Flag :-

The Independence day since then is celebrated every year all over the country. On this day, the sky is filled

With the tricolour flag. Almost every institution, school, college, office celebrates the flag ceremony.

Celebrations In School :

The school organize special assemblies in which homage is paid to those who laid their lives for the independence of the country. Patriotic songs and re-enactment of the famous episodes of independence struggle are performed. These motivate the children to serve the nation and be ready to sacrifice.

Conclusion :

The independence day remind us of the dedication, suffering and struggle of our freedom fighters and leaders who give India the freedom. It is our duty to protect the freedom of the country. We should think of the poor who are still not free from poverty, hunger and slavery. Freedom should bring cheers to every Indian, whether poor or rich.
