Independence Day

One of the greatest day in the history of India when we got freedom from the British slavery after 200 years of hard struggle. A long years of struggle for freedom finally ended on 15th August 1947, the golden day in the history of India. Many freedom fighter sacrificed their lives for the freedom of India. Names like Bhagat Singh, Chandra Sekhar Azad, Rani Laxmi Bai, Mahatma Gandhi etc. are lost their lives. 15th August is celebrated as the independence day of India. It's the birth date of India. This day is very closed to each Indians.

It is celebrated in all over India with great joy and enthusiasm. In the capital city of India - New Delhi, a grand show is hosted at the Red Fort. The Prime Minister of India hoists the national flag - 'Tiranga' and salute. Then addresses the audience. The P.M of India highlights important issue and talks about future development. In schools and colleges, before the Corona virus pandemic, we used to be some competition like card making, and some sports activities. Sweets were distributed among all the students and it used to be fun after all.

15th August is a important day for all the citizens of India. We all are greatful to have birth in free country. The free nation in which we enjoy all our fundamentall rights is because of the freedom fighters. And today it's our duty to remember all the freedom fighters. And today it's our duty to shape the better future of the nation. We are the future of the country. Freedom fighters played their role well and it's our turn to give the nation our best efforts towards it's development.

Jai Hind! Vande Mataram!
