Independence Day

15th August. 1947 is the day embossed in the golden history of India. It is the day when India got its freedom from the 200 years of British rule. It was a hard and a long non-violent struggle in which many freedom fighters and great men sacrificed their lives for our beloved motherland.

Independence Day is like the birthday of our country. We celebrate 15th August every year as our Independence Day. It is called the red-letter day in the history of our country.

In 1947, on this day, India become independent. We won freedom from British power after a hard and non-violent struggle. On this day at the stroke of midnight, Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, our first Prime Minister, unfurled the National flag at the Red fort for the first time. It marked the end of the 200 years old British reign in India.

Independence Day is an important day in the life of every Indian. The Indian National Anthem - Jana Grana mana is sung after the flag hosting by chief guest. A wind of patriotism and National integration blows across the country on this day.
